

VENT VALVES

Manual Vents for Hydronic Systems
(hot or chilled water and steam)

Flair offers a complete line of manual vent valves for use with hydronic systems. These products are manufactured under the most exacting standards and help to insure low-cost, trouble-free hydronic installations.

APPLICATION

Use where long service is required or where boiler chemicals are present. May be mounted in any position.

BENEFITS & SPECIAL FEATURES

- 125 PSIG
- All brass construction
- Nickel plated body
- Directional bleed
- Suitable for hot & chilled water and steam
- Coin valve can be operated by screwdriver or coin
- Key valve must be operated by die cast key (optional)
- Wheel valve may be hand operated without injury
- Wheel is made of durable Delrin
- Low in cost
- 1/8" NPT
- Small size allows placement where other vents will not fit

DIMENSIONS

